THE ROYAL
EDINBURGH
MILITARY TATTOO

Jeffrey Teague, Owner/Operator of Teague Tours, proudly presents the opportunity for you to join him on one of two tours to The Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo to be held in Sydney in October 2019.

"I'm delighted in being able to offer two tour options to attend this extravaganza from Edinburgh Scotland, incorporating 1,200 performers on stage at the ANZ Stadium in Sydney. Seated in a fully catered corporate box for 12 on Level 2 = optimum positioning".

The first tour departs Adelaide on Saturday 12th October 2019 and meanders its way along as much of the mighty Murray River as possible, then onto Sydney via Canberra. A return flight to Adelaide from Sydney on Friday 18th October 2019 is included. The 2nd tour is a mirror image of the 1st, with flights from Adelaide to Sydney on Friday 18th October 2019.

Staying in quality accommodation and involving incredible scenery & attractions along the way, this tour will be presented with passion by your host, Jeffrey Teague. A fully catered corporate box for 12 awaits us at ANZ Stadium on the evening of the "Tattoo".

$2,975 per person twin share (GST inclusive). Single supplement is an additional $575

Itinerary (please note that Group 2 is a mirror image):-

Day 1: Departing Adelaide at 8:30am, we venture to Renmark for lunch on the River. This afternoon we travel to Euston, NSW for the evening and along the way, we will involve as many River towns as possible for sightseeing purposes.

Day 2: After breakfast we'll head to Echuca for a luncheon cruise on The Murray, absorbing many sights along the way. Echuca is this evening's stop-over.

Day 3: Departing Echuca we will call into Rutherglen for a winery luncheon, then in the afternoon continue to Corryong, the township famous for "The Man from Snowy River", as well as being the nearest town to the source of the Murray River in the Snowy Mountains.

Day 4: Today we'll wend our way through the Snowy River countryside and arrive at this evening's destination, Canberra, in the late afternoon.

Day 5: While in Canberra, we will endeavour to attend as many attractions as possible (eg. Australian War Memorial and/or the National Gallery of Australia). Sydney is our destination this evening, for a two night stay.

Day 6: A free morning and afternoon awaits you to delight in the pleasures of Sydney before resting up for this evening's Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo to be held at ANZ Stadium, Homebush. A fully catered Level 2 corporate box awaits our group of 12.

Day 7: After a leisurely start to the day, I will transfer you to the Sydney Airport in the early afternoon for your return flight to Adelaide.

A fantastic tour awaits us and Teague Tours is eager for you to participate in a quality, personalised, once in a lifetime extravaganza!!!
